December 2009

Dear Santa and lovers of the game of golf,

My wife and I have poured our hearts into our little 12 acre golf facility in Colombia. It is the only place where the public can play golf in the entire state. We are proud of what we have accomplished even though our standards are not quite what golfers in the U.S have come to expect. Our greens are merely fairways cut as low as possible with our little Honda push mower. Our driving range is 150 yards long and only 50 yards wide. We have no electricity in our tent that serves as clubhouse and snack bar. With a little help, we can show the world that golf is A GAME FOR ALL.

If you can find it in your hearts, here is where you can ship. (The US POST OFFICE knows how to find us best. PLEASE.... Do not put any value on these items. If you do, we pay dearly with taxes, etc. VALUE EVERYTHING at $0.00 and as "gift".

Our wish list

- “Almostgolf” YELLOW practice balls (which can be found at most golf shops)
- Sand wedges, pitching wedges and 9 irons. Any others of course, but our holes are no more than 100 yards. If we get enough of the above YELLOW balls, we can start letting people hit drivers, etc. on the practice range.
- Grips (mens, women’s and especially kids grips)
- Old golf balls, new golf balls, we don’t care
- Used gloves, all sizes
- Used shoes, all sizes
- Short or broken tees
- Kids golf shirts (if we get hundreds, we can clothe some of the kids in the town who really need them)
- Cash. Our website has an easy way to donate. Please note we do NOT qualify as a 501C3. You can also e-mail me if you prefer to donate by check.

Sincerely,

Tony Ciabattoni and Sandra Gonzalez
